

TABLE OF CONTENTS

An Editorial Note, by Audrey Law Hosegood	vi
Guest Editorial, by Jim Kohut	vii

THEME

Rest From Garden Pests, by Holly Mawby	viii
Integration – A Whole New Way of Thinking: Edible Landscaping for The New Millennium, by Jim Kohut	1
Edible Flowers for The Prairie Garden, by Sandra Gowan	5
Edible Landscaping with Heirlooms, by Mary Brittain	11
Some Favourite Heirloom Vegetables, by Tanya Stefanec	14
Growing Nut Trees on The Prairies, by Rick Durand	16
Dwarf Sour Cherries for The Prairies, by Patricia Hanbidge	21
Eastern Asia's Contribution to Hardy Fruit Development: The Common & The Exotic, by Hugh Skinner	23
Black & Red Currants for The Edible Landscape, by Robert Shearer	26
Saskatoons on The Prairies, by Warren Otto	29
Dehydrated Fruit, by Linda Tomlinson	32
Home Canning No Easy Task, by Fran Wershler	34
Vegetable Gardening – Naturally, by Merv Pritchard	36
Heirloom Tomatoes, by Barbara-Jean (B.J.) Jackson	39
A Few Magical Beans... by Stella Kohut	44
Garlic, an Ancient Food & Medicine, by Colin J. Briggs	51
A Herb Lover's Haven, by June Harris	54
Wild Plants: Are They Edible or Poisonous? by Gary Platford	55
A Medicine Cabinet in Your Backyard, by Scott Chaussee	60
Orris Iris: The Original Preservative, by Eleanor Hutchison	65
A History of Herbalism on The Prairies, by Patricia Hanbidge	66
The Vegetable Garden: Beyond its Monetary Value, by Alexander Oliver	68
Multiplier Onions, by Phil Isaac	72
On Landscaping & The Edible Garden Concept, by Doug Hevenor	73
The Incredibly Edible Flowering Crabs: Fine Landscaping in Good Taste, by Jim Kohut	76
The University of Minnesota Display & Trial Garden: Edibles & Ornamentals Together in Harmony, by Julie Weisenhorn,	83
Explosive Crispness – The Honeycrisp Apple, by Jim Kohut	88
Allotment Gardens: Past, Present & Future? by Karen Lind	105
Grow a Row for Your Canine Friend, by Susanne Olver	109
My Mighty Tasty Garden, by Mary Popien	111

Enhance Your Survival Skills & Your Dining Enjoyment, by Yves H. Prévost	114
The Unwelcome Dinner Guest, by Stefan Fediuk	117
Element(s) of Surprise: Mushrooms, by Carla Zelmer	119
Gourmet Perennials: Daylilies for Dinner & Lilacs for Lunch, by Coreen Franke	125
Sea Buckthorn: Exploring its Prairie Potential, by Laura Poppy	132
University of Minnesota Blueberries, by David L. Hansen	135
The Best of Both Worlds: A Biography of An Apple, by Ray & Fran Batenchuk	141
Apple & Crab Apple Fly Maggot Control, by Michael Allen	145
Wild Plums in The Old Northwest, by Ray England	152
“Dig for Victory” by Holly Mawby	155
The Grey Nuns of The Red River, by Susanne Olver	158
St. Andrews Market Gardens, by Ruth M. Asher	160

GENERAL

How Cold Kills, by Ieuan R. Evans	46
Cold Frames, by H. David Matthews	49
Native Cactus, by Gwen Jamieson	81
Gardens & Cats, by H. David Matthews	110
Beausejour Daylily Gardens, by Carol Bender	129
The 2006 Prairie Garden Award for Excellence Barbara Laschkewitsch of Fargo, ND, USA by Jean Pomo	147
Dr. Wilbert Ronald of Portage la Prairie, MB, Canada by Linda Pearn	149
Book Review, by Hugh Skinner: In A Cold Land – Saskatchewan's Horticultural Pioneers , by Sara Williams	151
50 Years Ago: Judging Canned Fruit , by Mrs. W.S. Frazer	162
Gardens & Friendships Blossom, by Jo McCrea	164
Recipe Index	166
Themes for The Prairie Garden Back Issues	167
Order Form	168

On the cover: Honeycrisp™ Apple, courtesy of David L. Hansen, University of Minnesota, Agricultural Experiment Station. Photos and illustrations are acknowledged within with the following exception: page 140, David L. Hansen, University of Minnesota.